Family Connection of South Carolina's photography exhibit

Showcasing the beauty and strength of children and young adults with disabilities

At Tapp's Arts Center • April 2017 • 1644 Main Street • Columbia, SC

How can you help?

Sponsor a child or young adult with a disability or special need and help us raise awareness of their abilities - allowing others to truly SEE them!

Your support provides funds for a variety of programs and services, including Kid Connection, a support group for siblings of children with special needs, and materials and resources for families.
